Introduction

This Admission Policy complies with the requirements of the Education Act 1998, the Education (Admission to Schools) Act 2018 and the Equal Status Act 2000. In drafting this policy, the Board of Management of the school has consulted with school staff, the school patron and with parents of children attending the school.

The policy was approved by the school patron on 25/09/2020. It is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy, on request, to any person who requests it.

The relevant dates and timelines for Gaelscoil an Teaghlaigh Naofa's admission process are set out in the school's annual admission notice which is published annually on the school's website at least one week before the commencement of the admission process for the school year concerned. This policy must be read in conjunction with the annual admission notice for the school year concerned. The application form for admission (for mainstream classes and special class for pupils with ASD) is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy on request to any person who requests it.

1. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school.

Gaelscoil an Teaghlaigh Naofa is an Irish medium primary school under the patronage of the Catholic Bishop of Cork and Ross. The full range of classes is taught in the school and classes are of mixed gender.

Gaelscoil an Teaghlaigh Naofa supports the principle of equality for all students regarding access to and participation in the school. The school respects the diversity of traditions, values, beliefs, languages and ways of life in society. The school acknowledges the right of parents to send their children to a school of the parent's choice, subject to the resources available to the school including classroom accommodation, class size, teaching resources and financial resources and subject to the capacity of the school to provide for the needs of any applicant or student. It will make every effort to secure those resources – where the resources cannot be secured the school may refuse admission. The school is staffed in accordance with the standard pupil – teacher ratios sanctioned by the Department of Education and Skills and any additional teaching hours sanctioned by the Department in respect of curricular concessions, special needs, special programmes, etc. The school operates within the regulations laid down by the Department.

In September 2021 Gaelscoil an Teaghlaigh Naofa will establish a special class for children with ASD. The special class is intended to meet the needs of pupils with complex and severe educational needs arising from their diagnosis of Autism meeting DSM V or ICD 10 diagnostic criteria. The class is for all pupils who meet these criteria irrespective of cognitive ability.

Our Special Class is an additional support mechanism for pupils with a diagnosis of additional needs who find/would find attending mainstream classes on a full-time basis challenging. Our Special Class is a class within the overall school and as such forms an integral part of our school community. As far as possible, pupils attending the Special Class will be integrated into the day-to-day activities of the school and it is envisaged that pupils attending the Special Class will, as far as possible, participate in school related events.

For further details, please see Gaelscoil an Teaghlaigh Naofa's Policy for Provision for Pupils with Special Education Needs, which is available by request from the school office.

From September 2021, Gaelscoil an Teaghlaigh Naofa, with the approval of the Minister for Education and Skills, will establish a special class to provide an education exclusively for students with Autism (ASD) that meet the criteria set out by the NCSE to qualify for enrolment in a Specialist ASD Class in a mainstream setting.

Criteria for Admission to the Special Class for pupils with ASD, in our Mainstream School

- 1. Each child must have a diagnosis of Autism/ Autistic Spectrum Disorder using DSM V or ICD 10 criteria as set out by a professional/individual approved by the Department of Education and skills and a Multi-Disciplinary Assessment Report. This report must be current and must include a recommendation that a placement in a special class in a mainstream school is both necessary and suitable for the child.
- 2. As inclusion is an integral part of our school ethos, it is a necessary criteria of enrolment that any child attending the special class must have the potential of meaningful integration into a mainstream classroom setting. The level of integration, duration and timing will be decided upon by the principal and staff of the Special Class in consultation with the mainstream teacher and the parents of the child in question and on the basis of information shared at an annual review meeting.
- 3. Admission procedures outlined in this policy must be followed when applying for admission to the Special Class in our mainstream school. The Application Form for the Special Class in the mainstream school must be filled out by parents and submitted to the school with all relevant reports.

In the event that the number of children meeting the criteria above is greater than the number of places available in the Special Class, the categories outlined in Section 6 of this Policy will be used as a basis for prioritising admission to the Special Class.

5. Oversubscription

In the event that Gaelscoil an Teaghlaigh Naofa is oversubscribed, the school will, when deciding on applications for admission, apply the following selection criteria in the order listed below to those applications that are received within the timeline for receipt of applications as set out in the school's annual admission notice:

Each Applicant Student in this position will be allocated a number and the numbers shall be randomly picked (by a random number generator and under the supervision of members of the Board of Management).

Special Class for pupils with ASD:

Having received an application form, the school may in the first instance consult with the SENO (Special Educational Needs Organiser) and other professionals working with the child (teachers, childcare workers, psychologists etc.) in order to ascertain the suitability of the child for a special class for children with ASD in a mainstream school.

Following this consultation, the priority categories for the Special Class for pupils with ASD, in our mainstream school are as follow:

Each Applicant Student in this position will be allocated a number and the numbers shall be randomly picked (by a random number generator and under the supervision of members of the Board of Management).

Where the Applicant Students in a category are not successful in achieving a place, their names will be placed on a waiting list in the order in which such names were drawn in the category. Applicants will be informed of the Applicant Student's place on the waiting list as it applies in the particular priority category. The waiting list will remain valid only for places that arise in the school year applied for (usually the following school year). Applicants must reapply for a place for subsequent years, on the dates outlined in the Admissions Notice for the relevant year.
